This firm has extended its business so rapidly that the present quarters are found to be inadequate to accommodate the business and they have decided to build this large store house where their surplus stock of iron, stores, and such material may be kept in reserve. It is also proposed to erect an addition to their store building on the lot just north of their store, and the foundation has already been laid for the same, and work will be hurried on both of the buildings as fast as the contractors can do it.

S. J. Holsinger, special agent for the interior department, came in from the north last evening on contest business in the U. S. land office. He will go to Phenix this evening, Mr. Holsinger just returned from a trip to the petrified forest and says that tourists are beginning to visit that wonderful place by the score already this season. A party of 130 tourists will visit the forest next Saturday and witness a Navajo dance which will take place at that time. He says the vandalism that is being carried on by visitors in taking away specimens of the petrified wood will soon ruin the beauty of the forest if it is not stopped, and he proposes to recommend that a permanent watchman be stationed there to prevent destruction before it is too late. To destroy the Journal-Miner will publish an interesting interview with Mr. Holsinger concerning this forest and also the wonderful Crater Mountain.

Deputy Makes a Catch.

Monday afternoon the sheriff's office in Prescott received the following telegram from Ash Fork: "Ping on tonight's train. Arrest him." Accordingly a deputy sheriff was on hand when the train pulled in but no hardened criminal showed up, and the deputy was just meditating on the matter of telegrams when he was informed that the express agent had "Ping" in the car waiting for him. The deputy went to the door of the car and was standing in breathless suspense when he was handed a note which stated that which was Wilkinson, a friend of Mr. Roberts, had sent down from Ash Fork to hold the important position of mascot for the sheriff's office. Ping was taken to the home of Mr. Roberts and placed in the wood shed for detention, but that to say has not been since. He crawled out under the door during the night, and Mr. Roberts says if any body finds the ugliest and smartest little wretch that ever walked it is his Ping and they will return him to the sheriff's office.

ABOUT FOREST RESERVES.

Commissioner of the Land Office Richards has made an announcement of the forest reserve policy which has caused a much discussion during the past few weeks. Commissioner Richards said: "The establishment and the proper maintenance of the forest reserve is indispensable to any extensive reclamation or cultivation of lands in the arid regions. The failure to control the voracious sheep grazing throughout the west is injurious to the growth of the forests as well as injurious to the natural water sheds. The preservation of the forest reserve is only incidental to the policy of the reclamation. One guiding purpose of the present administration is to make easy the path of the home builder and not let him be defrauded by those who have not a permanent interest therein. The announcement of the policy of President Roosevelt was the result of protests coming from certain sections of the west where the sheep grazing interests now predominate and where the laws regarding forest reserves have been disregarded to a certain extent."

USEFUL INFORMATION.

Some books are made to amuse, others because they are useful and needed. In this class is a book which the publishers have just favored us with a copy of, and it is with much pleasure that we review it. The title is "Conklin's Review of the Manual of Useful Information and World's Atlas." It contains 313 pages, 95 of which are occupied by the clearest up to date maps, printed in colors, that we have ever seen. This is the most useful book that has been our good fortune to possess, and we recommend it to all of our readers to send for a copy.

For the educated as a book of reference, for the unlearned as a storehouse of knowledge, for workers in all callings of life as a helpful companion. The book is equally useful in the home, the study, the office and the workshop.

The information which you would seek in a whole library is here in one volume. Boiled down, condensed, concentrated and made available for quick reference. Not one blank page. Not one useless sentence. Not one square inch of waste paper.

A Mexican Shows Samples of Ore Which Causes a Regular Stampede From Kingman to Scene of Discovery.

Douglas, Lacey & Co. Will Explore Several Properties.

A diamond drill outfit arrived in Prescott this week for the Douglas, Lacey & Co. people, directed from the firm of Sullivan Drill company, of Chicago. The outfit is now being transported to the El Capitan mine, and it is expected drilling will be commenced on that wonderful property within the next week. It is proposed to explore that property for 3000 feet when the drill will be taken to the company's oil well in Lonesome valley when the drill will be driven to a depth of at least 2000 if necessary. After this has been done other mines under this company's control will be thoroughly prospected by the drills, which are under the personal management of Mr. Hawko, an expert, who came out with the drilling outfit. Great results are expected from this venture.

PATROLLING LEVIES.

Energetic Efforts to Protect Property from Floods.

Memphis, Tenn., March 11.—Armed guards are patrolling the levees in many districts along the Mississippi. In this city the water is encroaching on the business streets. It will take but a few inches more to render work impossible at the lumber camps north of here. Steamers report refugees from the lowlands coming to the high ground in great numbers.

The government has increased its force of engineers and are employing steamers to carry sacks of sand, and other supplies to the more dangerous places.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, pushing it up against the heart, and in the course of time that swollen but vital organ becomes diseased.
